Food Distribution Program
December 2015
What are Civil Rights?

“The nonpolitical rights of a citizen; the rights of personal liberty guaranteed to U.S. citizens by the 13th and 14th Amendments to the U.S. Constitution and by acts of Congress.”
What is Discrimination?

- The act of distinguishing one person or group of persons from others, either intentionally, by neglect, or by the effect of actions or lack of actions based on their protected classes.
Any person or group of people who have characteristics for which discrimination is prohibited based on a law, regulation, or executive order.

Protected classes in TEFAP are

- Race
- Color
- National origin
- Age
- Sex, and
- Disability.
Federal financial assistance is anything of value received from the Federal government such as:

- Cash grants and loans,
- USDA food/commodities,
- Training,
- Property donations,
- Permission to use Federal property, and
- similar items and services.
Title VI – Civil Rights Act of 1964 states: No person in the United States shall be discriminated against on the grounds of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity.

Example: Race/color: Treating or speaking to a child differently (using slang for example) or in a friendlier manner because of race or color.
The Age Discrimination Act of 1975 provides: No person in the United States, shall, on the basis of age, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under, any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.
Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 states: No person in the United States shall, on the basis sex (gender), be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.

Example: You shouldn’t offer smaller portions to women compared to men. The same size portion should be offered to each.
Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 added disability to Title VI.

Title II and Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 extended the requirements to all services, programs and activities of State and local governments and prohibits discrimination based on disability in other public services.
USDA Regulation 7 CFR Part 16, Equal Opportunity for Religious Organizations: The purpose of this part is to set forth USDA policy regarding equal opportunity for religious organizations to participate in USDA assistance programs for which other private organizations are eligible.
FNS Instruction 113-1: The purpose of this Instruction is to establish and convey policy and provide guidance and direction to the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) and its recipients and customers, and ensure compliance with and enforcement of the prohibition against discrimination in all FNS nutrition programs and activities, whether federally funded in whole or not.

Goals of Civil Rights Legislation

- Equal treatment for all eligible participants.
- Knowledge of rights and responsibilities.
- Overcome the Civil Rights barriers that people have in participating in a program.
- Dignity and respect for all.
Local agencies are responsible for annual training.
First line workers (including volunteers) and all levels of supervisors must receive required training.
Training can be done in many ways.
You are required to document your training efforts.
At the end of the training, staff should:

- Be able to identify a civil rights complaint if received.
- Know what to do if they receive a complaint.
- Understand that it is the basic right of the individual to file a complaint.
Required Documentation

- Name of the training Instructor.
- Date training was provided to staff.
- Topics covered in the training.
- Names of all the people attending the training.
  - Use simple sign-in sheets which all participants sign at the end of the training session
- Keep your sign-in sheets in your files along with a copy of the training.
Collection and use of data,
Effective public notification systems,
Complaint procedures,
Compliance review techniques,
Resolution of noncompliance,
Reasonable accommodations for people with disabilities,
Language assistance,
Conflict resolution, and
Customer service
Currently participants self-declare the household’s information for TEFAP eligibility.

In general, any data collected about beneficiaries should be kept secure and confidential.

May help to determine if more people could be reached in your community.

May help to identify who needs to be reached yet.
All FNS assistance programs must include a public notification system. The purpose of this system is to inform applicants, participants, and potentially eligible persons of:

- Program availability,
- Program rights and responsibilities,
- The policy of nondiscrimination, and
- The procedure for filing a complaint.
Methods of Public Notification

- Prominently display the USDA nondiscrimination poster "And Justice for All,“
- Inform potentially eligible persons, applicants, participants, and grassroots organizations of programs or changes in programs; including information pertaining to eligibility, benefits, and services, the location of local facilities or service delivery points, and hours of service.
- Provide appropriate information, including Web-based information, in alternative formats for persons with disabilities.
Public Notification

- Include the required nondiscrimination statement on all appropriate FNS and agency publications, Web sites, posters, and informational materials provided to the public.

- Let applicants and participants at your site know:
  - their right to file a complaint,
  - how to file a complaint, and
  - the complaint procedures.
Full Statement:
“In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.”

To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-3027) found online at: http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html, and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:

(1) mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture
Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights
1400 Independence Avenue, SW
Washington, D.C. 20250-9410;

(2) fax: (202) 690-7442; or

(3) email: program.intake@usda.gov.

“This institution is an equal opportunity provider”
Minimum Statement:
“This institution is an equal opportunity provider.”

Include the non-discrimination statement on all materials that mention USDA programs; including websites, photos, and other graphics that are used in publications.

- Should be submitted to the State within 60 days of receipt of findings.

Failure or refusal to implement a Corrective Action Plan may result in loss of Federal Assistance.
Ensure that people with disabilities can get into your agency from the parking lot, entrances, hall, elevators, rest rooms, as well as allowing service animals

Arrange ways for people to get services
  ➢ Example: If your program is in the basement and you don’t have an elevator, staff should be available on the main floor.

Limited English Proficiency (LEP)

Definition: Individuals who do not speak English as their primary language and have a limited ability to read, speak, write, or understand English.

All organizations receiving Federal Financial Assistance have a responsibility to take reasonable steps to ensure “meaningful” access to their programs and activities by persons with LEP.
Factors to Consider in Determining “Reasonable Steps”

- The number or proportion of LEP persons eligible to be served or likely to be encountered by the program or grantee;
- The frequency with which LEP individuals come in contact with the program;
- The nature and importance of the program, activity, or service provided by the program to people’s lives; and
- The resources available to the grantee/recipient and costs. A shortage of resources does not eliminate the requirement of “Reasonable Steps”.
Limited English Proficiency (LEP)

- Potential Cost Reduction Solutions:
  - Using technological advances;
  - Sharing of language assistance materials and services among and between recipients, advocacy groups, and Federal grant agencies;
  - Where appropriate, training bilingual staff to act as interpreters and translators, telephonic and video conferencing interpretation services, or the formalized use of qualified community volunteers.
  - Pooling resources, and
  - Standardizing documents to reduce translation needs.
Children who are minors should not be used as interpreters.

Volunteers may be used, but make sure they understand confidentiality!

Prototype applications in other languages:

How is your Attitude?

- Always clearly introduce yourself when answering the telephone and do not interrupt the caller.
- Be patient. Give the customer every opportunity to explain the issue.
- Be understanding. Of all the communications situations that you encounter, angry customers require the most empathy.
- Do not be judgmental.
- Talk calmly and slowly; in a well modulated voice (low pitch). This should help relax the person and allow you to address the facts, not cater to emotions.
- Be sincere. Even if you sense that the problem is not the fault of your organization and clearly not your fault, it is ok to apologize to the customer for his or her inconvenience; not necessarily the actions by your agency.
- Be aware. Get help if threatened or if violence is possible.
What Steps do you need to take?

- Remain calm
- What is the problem? Using information provided, determine what the issue is.
- Determine a solution. Know your organization’s policy on handling situations and information needed to offer a solution.
- Gain approval from the Customer. Check with the customer for their approval on a solution.
- Make an agreement. You and the customer should determine what is to be done, when it is to be done, and by whom and alternatives if needed.
- Follow up. Personally make sure that the customer has been satisfied; and provide feedback.
Customer Service

Making a Difference
 Treat all people with dignity and respect.
 Answer questions in a voice that is non-threatening.
 Clearly explain to everyone the rules as well as their rights and responsibilities.
 Find and use tools and techniques to improve customer service.
 Recognize when stress creates a problem in giving service excellence.
Making a Difference

- Recognize that participants have varied needs and (sometimes) few resources.
- Notice when a person feels they have been treated in a rude manner.
- Develop good listening skills.
- Learn to put yourself in their place when necessary.
- Learn to deal with dissatisfied customers.
- Improve customer satisfaction.
Questions?
Training Tips

 Cover the basics
 Give people an understanding about how the civil rights got started (i.e. laws that cover all federally funded entities)
 Use examples
 Expect issues and questions and be prepared to address them
 Recognize and value differences
Be sensitive, civil rights can be very personal and people approach it from different angles.

Answer questions directly and clearly.

If you don’t know the answer DO NOT make something up – agree to get the answer and then follow up.
